Kids Fire Academy June 8th – 9th, 2022

Participants of this academy will learn about the History of the Fire Service and Emergency Medical Services (EMS) and the roles that Firefighter/EMTs serve in the community today. The Academy consists of two, four-hour days.

Topics that will be covered include: fire prevention, first aid, firefighting and rescue, daily duties of Firefighter/EMTs, and requirements to become a Firefighter/EMT. The second day of the Academy will include several “hands on” activities utilizing a variety of equipment the Urbandale Fire Department has.

Requirements to participate: Be between 8-15 years old and live and/or go to school in Urbandale. Participants will receive a Fire Academy t-shirt and have lunch with Firefighters on the second day of the Academy.

Location: UFD Station #42 at 3927 121st St.

Registration: Registrations must be received by Tuesday May 17, 2022. Registration forms can be downloaded from www.urbandale.org or see the attached registration form.
